

Be a Certified Hero

Jumpstart Your Career...

Microsoft Certifications recognize and validate your real-world IT skills, support the certified community by providing access to unique resources, and offer a life-long career path of IT skills development.

• “Having Microsoft certification is the most visible way to demonstrate confidence in a particular technology. Training is a mode of learning but we need to prove our competency. Certification is the tangible proof that demonstrates our competency in any particular technology.” Joey Gurango, founder and CTO of Gurango Software

• “As more customers specifically request for Microsoft certified staff in their tenders, organizations that have a high concentration of certified staff are at a distinct advantage.” Joy Rathnayake, Senior Software Engineer, IronOne Technologies

• “As people learn about new technologies, the environment of knowledge sharing that was set up for the purpose of certification leads to knowledge being shared around the team.” Rob Farley, mentor and consultant for Solid Quality Learning Pty Ltd

• “Ultimately, certification does add to one’s market value as companies will pay a premium when they see that an employee is Microsoft certified.” Edwin Sarmiento, Senior Systems Engineer & Database Administrator, Fujitsu Asia Pte Ltd
